ORDER:

Government of AP, through the Society for elimination of Rural Poverty (SERP), has taken up many anti-poverty initiatives under the World Bank aided AP Rural Poverty Reduction programme (APRPRP). Many of these initiatives require effective convergence between various Government departments. Accordingly, in the orders read above, Government have constituted a State level Committee for achieving convergence between SERP and other Government Departments. Since then, the activities of the SERP have expanded to cover many other facets of rural poverty, which need to be mainstreamed to the functioning of the line departments.

2. During the review of the activities of SERP held by Chief Secretary on 17.7.2010, it has been decided to reconstitute the Inter-departmental Convergence Committee under the Chairmanship of Chief Secretary consisting of Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, Marketing, Revenue, Primary Education, School Education, Women and Child Welfare Department, Medical and Health, Civil Supplies, Finance, Labour, Social Welfare and Tribal Welfare Departments. It has been decided that the committee will identify areas of convergence of Indira Kranthi Patham (IKP) with other departmental initiatives and would monitor implementation of the same.

3. Accordingly, in supercession of the orders issued in the reference read above, the Government hereby order that the Inter-departmental Convergence Committee on Indira Kranthi Patham (IKP) shall be reconstituted with immediate effect with the following members:
